

A GHOST FLOATS OVER THE OCEAN

Words by Doug Berger, 12/86

(Used as intro to Visible Winds)

Keep me in your presence before the wind grows cold.
And straining eyes can't see through the strange days night.
Brewing and laughing in the twilights mist.
A ghost floats over the ocean, of course.