

THE WILDERNESS

Words by Doug Berger, 7/84

You see my children,

You can only walk your watchdog along snow-powdered trails.

For here in the wilderness,

There is no respite for frost-bitten canines who have lost their tameness.