When I was still young, Timothy Leary opened his eyes

And the Riot on Sunset Strip was over (frets 3-1).

We all felt the planet needed a new dream 3( 3-1),

A New World, with flowers for everyone ( 3-1).

But in a new world, you can't remember your name,

You can't see thought the rain,

You don't know where you are,

You're just riding on a star,

To another land in another time,

You touch down on the sand with crabs and urchins,

And then you see visions of the past 2( 3-1).

Of lives you lived before you, you knew you lived before you stepped on thru that door.
